

Our Savior's Lutheran School Newsletter December 2015

Read Every Day. Lead a Better Life.

The Scholastic Book Fair begins Friday, December 4th, in room #1. It will run through Friday, December 11th. Please plan on stopping by to do some Christmas shopping. The book fair will be open before school starts, during the lunch break, 11:30-1:00, and after school. It will also be open before and after all the Christmas performances.

Elementary Christmas Performances

The elementary students have been working very hard under the direction of Rob Swart. Their holiday performances are scheduled for:

Monday, 12/7, 6:00 pm (Kindergarten through 2nd grade) in the sanctuary

Friday, 12/11, 6:00 pm (3rd through fifth grade) in the sanctuary.

Preschool Christmas Performances

Thursday, 12/10, 9:00 am (Tu/Th class and Pre-Kindergarten) in the sanctuary

Friday, 12/11, 9:00 am (MWF and Pre-Kindergarten) in the sanctuary

The Christmas Giving Tree is here! In Partnership with Family Assistance Ministries we are going to provide NEW tennis shoes for children who are in need within our community.

- Visit the Giving Tree located in the narthex any time between now and December 18th
- Choose a gift tag(s) from the tree. The gift tag will have the shoe size and gender of the child
- Tape the gift tag on the unwrapped shoebox and return it to the narthex by December 18th.

On Thursday, 12/3 our third graders will be visiting the Environmental Nature Center in Newport Beach to participate in the Tongva Walk. Through simulation and games in an outdoor environment, the students will learn about the life and culture of the First Americans, the Tongva, from this geographical area.

Meet the Masters

Our young artists will be introduced to the French artist, Rosa Bonheur (1822-1899). Rosa Bonheur's love of animals is shown in her realistic paintings. Nature was her favorite subject. The children will study symmetry, texture and color through her warm, inviting paintings.

Their art activity will consist of drawing realistic animal portraits using oil pastels.
